BCFSA BC Financial Services Authority / Insurance Complaint Form

Thank you for contacting the BC Financial Services Authority (BCFSA). Your complaint is important to us as it might be the first indicator of a potential market conduct issue. We carefully consider each complaint and may take action if we identify a breach of the Insurance Act, Financial Institutions Act, or other legislation. We may also refer complaints to other regulatory bodies when appropriate. BCFSA will assess whether complaints result in an investigation or public sanction.

BCFSA ensures that insurance companies have appropriate authorizations in place to conduct business in BC. We enforce compliance with legislative requirements that govern, for example, sales and marketing practices, insurance company complaint handling and dispute resolution procedures, and insurance contracts. BCFSA more generally ensures that insurers do not engage in acts and conduct that might reasonably harm the interests of insureds.

While BCFSA does not generally intervene in individual claims disputes, service quality issues, and insurer business decisions, complaints from consumers on these and other issues may be indicative of market conduct issues BCFSA will pursue.

The Insurance Council of BC licenses and regulates insurance agents, agencies, and adjusters. Complaints about agents, agencies and adjusters should be directed to the Council (www.insurancecouncilofbc.com). Complaints about unlicensed insurance activities should be directed to BCFSA.

BCFSA will accept complaints in any format, however completing this form ensures adequate information is provided initially and allows for more efficient processing of complaints.

Please contact us at 604 398-5067 / insurance@bcfsa.ca with any questions about our role and your complaint.
