Purpose

Technical briefing on the 2026 Brokerage
Data Call

- Purpose of the 2026 Data Call
- Content of reporting
- How to submit information

Overview

- BCFSA will be collecting residential real estate and rescission data from trading services brokerages.
- This Data Call builds on previous year's reporting.
- Data Calls are important because they:
 - Support effective oversight;
 - Inform BCFSA about risks consumers may be facing;
 - Assist in evidence-based policy and regulatory decision-making; and
 - Allow BCFSA to assess market practices and impact of policy changes.

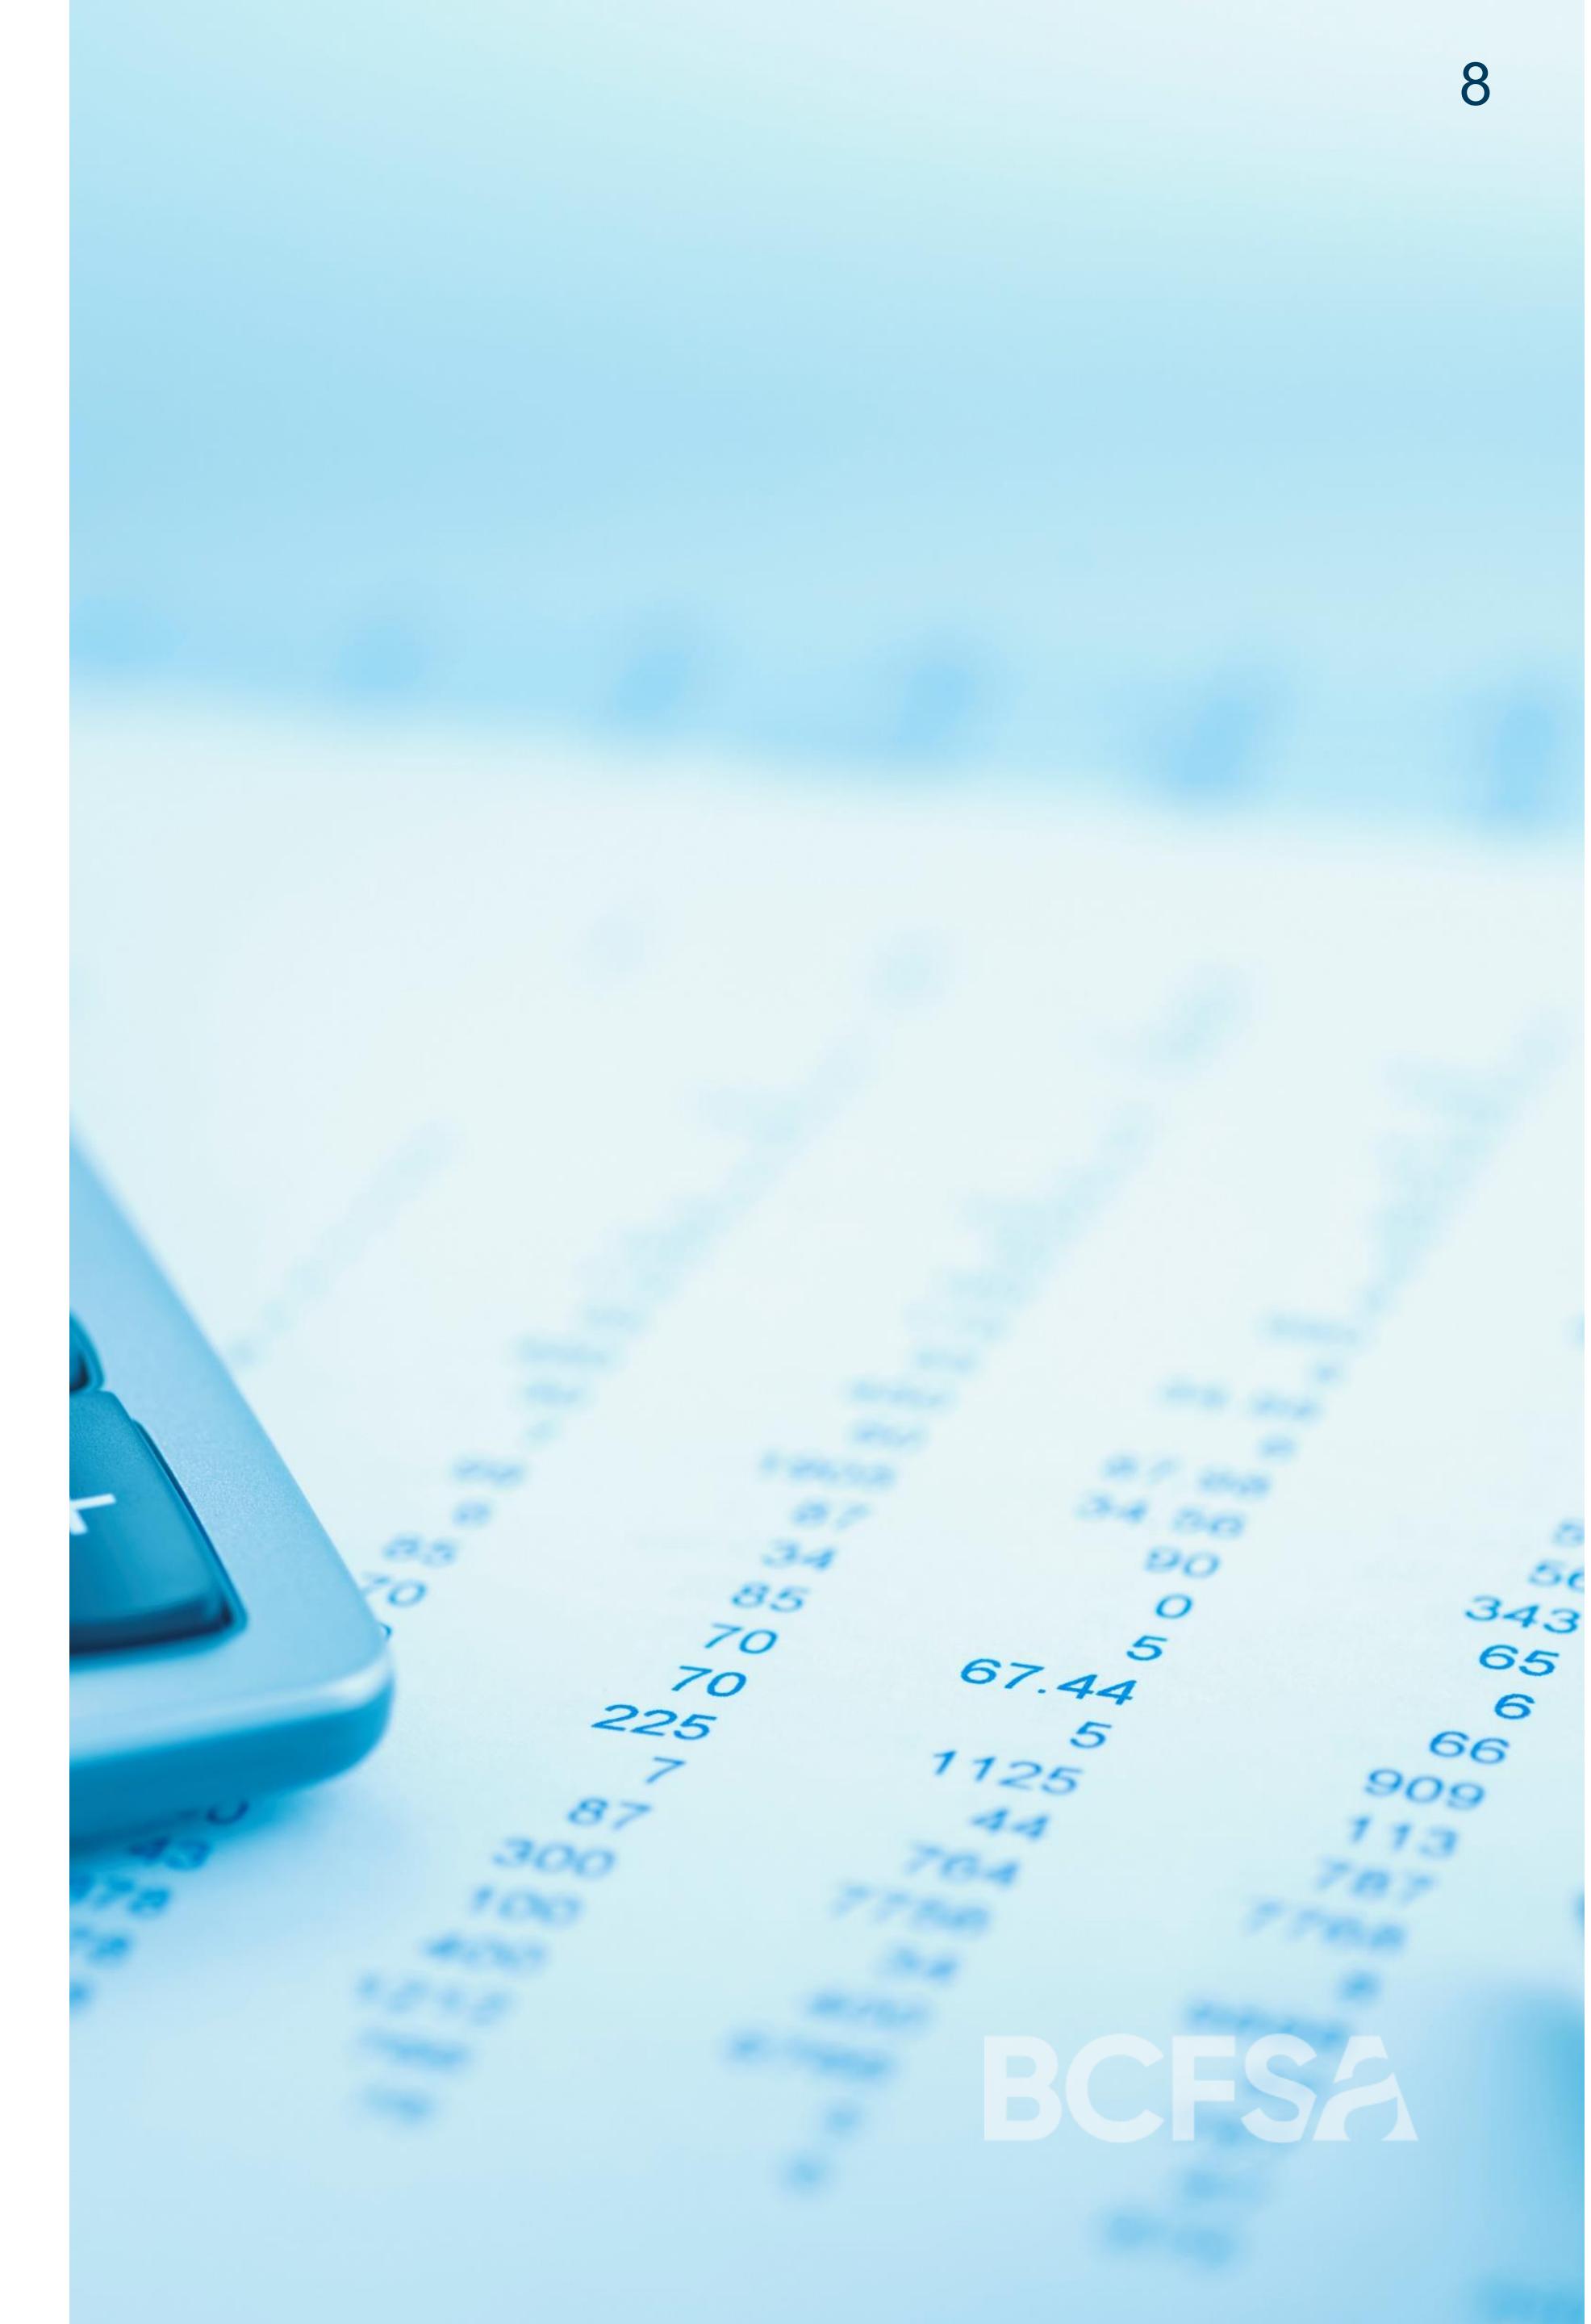

Details

WHO?	All trading services brokerages
WHAT?	Data on rescissions in 2025 and residential real estate sales between February 15, 2026 to March 14, 2026
WHEN?	Data must be submitted by April 17, 2026
HOW?	Transactions reported via Excel Workbook. Submissions must be made using IRIS.

Key Changes for 2026

1. Exemption for GVR members from reporting transactions in the Greater Vancouver Region
 - Still required to report rescission data
2. BCFSA will be collecting data on commission:
 - Gross Commission
 - Listing Brokerage Commission
 - Buyers Brokerage Commission

Introduction Upload File & Process Validation Status

i

BC Financial Services Authority is collecting residential sales data from real estate trading services brokerages for the period between February 16, 2025, to March 15, 2025.

The data call is mandatory and all brokerages that are licensed to provide trading services are required to provide a submission by March 31, 2025, even if they do not have any residential sales to report. Failure to respond to the 2025 Data Call may result in the issuance of an administrative penalty to the brokerage.

How to make a submission

- Please download the Brokerage Transaction Data Call 2025 Workbook (Excel format).
- Enter the required transaction information for your brokerage in the template.
- Save the file.
- Attach and submit the completed file on the next page.

Detailed instructions on how to complete the workbook can be found on BCFSA's website and in the workbook itself. Please read the instructions thoroughly before completing the workbook.

If you do not have any transactions to report, you do not need to complete a workbook but you must indicate that you have nothing to report on the next page.

Response to the 2025 Data Call is mandatory for all trading services brokerages. Section 93.1 of the Real Estate Services Rules \("Rules"\) requires licensees to provide records and information pursuant to requests by the Superintendent and in accordance with the requirements specified by the Superintendent. Section 93.1 is a Category A designated contravention pursuant to section 26 of the Rules, and is subject to an administrative penalty of $1,000 for a first contravention and $2,000 for any subsequent contravention under section 27 of the Rules.

FAQs

Q: Why are you conducting a Data Call?

A: BCFSA requires industry data to support its effective and proactive oversight of the real estate services sector.

Data assists BCFSA in fulfilling its mandate by:

- identifying risks consumers may be facing
- assisting in evidence-based policy and oversight
- assessing market practices and the impact of policy changes

Q: What data is being collected through this year's Data Call?

A: Just like last year, BCFSA is collecting two types of information through the 2026 data call:

- Residential real estate sales data
- HRP rescission data

Q: Who needs to respond to the Data Call?

A: Participation in the 2026 Data Call is mandatory for all brokerages licensed to provide trading services.

In all cases, trading services brokerages must respond to both IRIS service requests. This includes brokerages with no transactions or rescissions to report as well as brokerages whose transactions are exempt under the GVR information sharing partnership.

Q: Which residential real estate sales do I need to report?

A: Report transactions that meet ALL the following criteria:

- Your brokerage was the listing brokerage; AND
- The sale was for a residential property*; AND
- The firm date falls between February 15, 2026 to March 14, 2026

Do not report transactions:

- Where your brokerage only provided services to the buyer;
- With firm dates before February 15, 2026 or after March 14, 2026;
- Of pre-sale units subject to disclosures under the Real Estate Development Marketing Act;
- Involving unrepresented sellers;
- Of assignments of the contract of purchase and sale, regardless of whether you represented the assignor or the assignee;
- Involving commercial or industrial real estate (e.g., sales involving primarily commercial or industrial properties).

*Exception: Brokerages that are members of the GVR Board are exempt from reporting transactions within the GVR Board region.

Q: What does “residential property” include?

A: For the purpose of the Data Call, residential property refers to existing and newly built dwellings, including :

- Detached houses;
- Semi-detached houses (e.g., duplexes);
- Townhouses;
- Apartments within a duplex or other multi-unit dwelling;
- A residential strata lot (condos);
- Manufactured homes that are affixed to land; and
- A cooperative interest that includes a right of use or occupation of a dwelling.

This does not include property that is on leasehold land, leasehold interests, or the sale of property where s. 21 of the Real Estate Development and Marketing Act applies (presales).

Q: What does “firm date” mean?

A: For a subject-free or unconditional offer, the firm date is the date that the rescission period expired.

For a conditional offer, the firm date would be the date when the buyer (and/or seller) removed all subjects and the rescission period has passed.

The firm date must be between February 15, 2026 and March 14, 2026.

Q: Why are GVR members exempt from submitting residential real estate transaction data this year?

A: Brokerages that are members of the Greater Vancouver Realtors (GVR Board) and their managing brokers are exempt from reporting residential real estate transaction data for transactions involving property located within the geographical area served by the GVR Board. (Note: GVR member brokerages still need to respond to the IRIS service request.)

This exemption is in place because of an information-sharing partnership between BCFSA and GVR. Through this partnership, BCFSA receives direct access to residential real estate transaction data occurring within the GVR area.

Q: What is the GVR Board area?

A: The GVR Board area includes:

- City of Burnaby
- City of Coquitlam
- City of Maple Ridge
- The Corporation of the City of New Westminster
- The Corporation of the City of North Vancouver
- The Corporation of the District of North Vancouver
- City of Pitt Meadows
- The Corporation of the City of Port Coquitlam
- City of Port Moody
- City of Richmond
- The City of Delta
- District of Squamish
- Sunshine Coast Regional District
- City of Vancouver
- The Corporation of the District of West Vancouver
- Resort Municipality of Whistler

If you are still unsure, you can search the GVR area map found on GVR's website: GVR Area map.

Q: As a GVR member brokerage, how do I know what real estate transactions I need to report in light of the information sharing agreement?

A: For GVR member brokerages:

- If all your transactions in the reporting period are in the GVR Board area, you must respond to the IRIS service request by selecting "all of my transactions are in the exempted region".
- If you have transactions within the reporting period that are outside of the GVR Board area, you must respond to the IRIS service request by submitting these transactions in workbook in IRIS.
- If you have no transactions to report during the reporting period, you must respond to the IRIS service request by selecting "no transactions to report".

Q: Are GVR members exempt from providing rescission data too?

A: No. All brokerages (regardless of being members of the GVR Board) and their managing brokers are still required to report data on the use of the HBRP for the 2025 calendar year.

If the brokerage does not have any relevant information to provide, the brokerage/managing broker(s) must make a NIL submission reporting no rescissions in the IRIS portal per the detailed instructions.

Q: Why is GVR the only board with an Information Sharing Agreement (ISA) with BCFSA?

Is there an opportunity for other boards to enter into an ISA in the future?

A: BCFSA has been exploring opportunities to gain direct access to real estate boards' data for some time. GVR approached BCFSA with a proposal for an Information Sharing Agreement which led to the agreement currently in place.

While GVR is the first board to participate, BCFSA remains interested in exploring agreements with other boards. BCFSA will continue to actively engage with other boards and with the British Columbia Real Estate Association to explore opportunities for similar agreements in the future.

Q: What data will BCFSA get access to as part of this agreement?

A: BCFSA will receive residential real estate transaction data for all properties listed and sold within the GVR Board area.

This includes many of the same fields collected in previous data calls, such as property type, sale price, and transaction dates as well as commission information.

Q: Are you receiving the same data fields from GVR, compared to what's being reported by brokerages through the data call?

A: While a lot of the information gathered from GVR will be the same as the data call, there are some differences.

The data from GVR will not include offer data (total number of offers received and highest declined offer price), offer conditions, property disclosure statement, and listing brokerage and gross brokerage commission.

Q: How will BCFSA benefit from this agreement and access to this data?

A: Direct access to GVR transaction data allows BCFSA to:

- Gain timely, comprehensive access to residential real estate transaction data within the GVR Board area.
- Strengthen compliance and enforcement activities including understanding transaction volumes and business practices to support audits and investigations.
- Enhance policy development by enabling BCFSA to monitor rule changes, identify emerging trends, and assess consumer risks in real time.

Q: How can I access the workbook?

A: You can either download the Workbooks from our website or directly from the service requests in IRIS.

Remember: There are two workbooks:

- Residential real estate sales data
- HBRP rescission data

Q: Do I need to report transactions for branch offices?

A: Managing brokers of brokerages are responsible for submitting transaction information for all corresponding branch offices which must be included with the brokerage head office data in a single submitted workbook.

Q: Can I submit multiple workbooks for the same service request (e.g., a workbook for each branch office)?

A: No. If you are a managing broker responsible for reporting transactions for multiple brokerages (including any branch offices), you must report all transactions in one consolidated workbook.

Q: What do I need to do if I have no transactions or no rescissions to report?

A: You must respond to both service requests in IRIS.

If you have no transactions or rescissions to report, you must still complete a NIL submission in the IRIS portal, following the detailed instructions available on BCFSA's website.

Q: When are submissions due?

A: Your submissions or NIL response(s) are due on or before April 17, 2026.

BCFSA will be following this deadline closely and will not accommodate late submissions.

Q: What will happen if I don't respond to one or both service requests?

A: Brokerages' participation in the 2026 Data Call is mandatory, and non-compliance may result in an administrative penalty or other enforcement action.

Q: There was a mistake in my submission. Can I resubmit my workbook?

A: Yes. Please contact support@bcfsa.ca for assistance with any changes to a filed submission.

Q: What do I do if I have questions about the 2026
Data Call?

A: If you have questions or require assistance with the 2026 Data Call, please contact BCFSA's Service Centre:

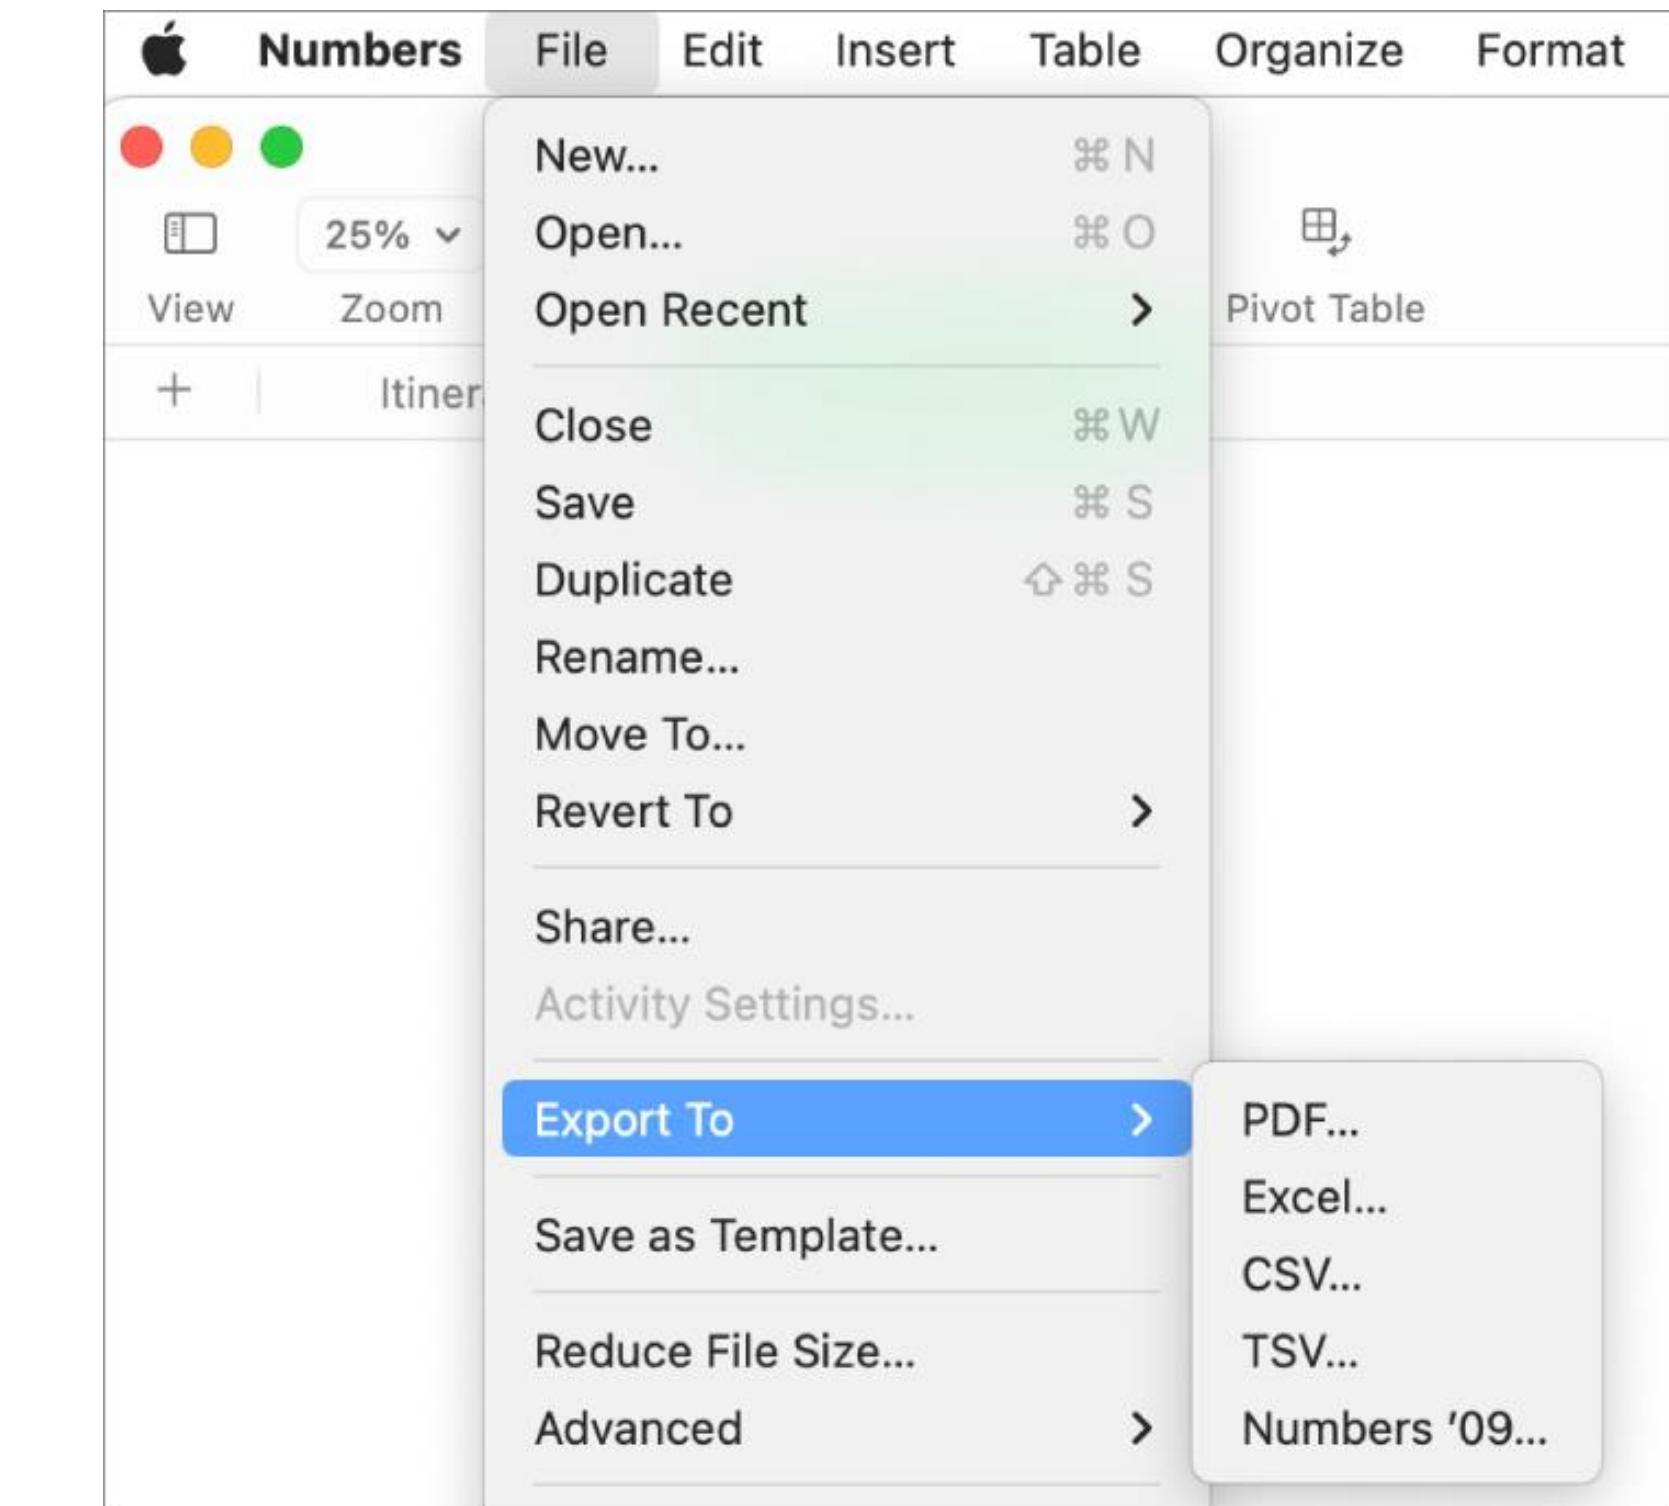

By email: datacall@bcfsa.ca

By phone: 604-660-3555 or toll-free 1-866-206-3030

Q: Is the Data Call compatible with Apple/Mac/Google Chromebook?

A: Only submissions in Excel format will pass validation.

When saving the workbook, Apple/Mac/Google Chromebook users must save the Numbers file in .xlsx format.
