Date:	August 5, 2026
Distribution:	CEOs and CFOs, B.C. authorized life, property and casualty, and mortgage insurance corporations, and fraternal benefit societies
Advisory Number:	26-031

PURPOSE

BC Financial Services Authority (BCFSA) is issuing revised filing requirements for B.C. authorized life, property and casualty, and mortgage insurance corporations and fraternal benefit societies. The updated filing requirements are effective immediately.

BCFSA has issued Regulatory Statement 26 – 023 Established Filing Requirements for Extraprovincial Insurance Corporations and Fraternal Benefit Societies Authorized in B.C. making these changes to filings.

Updated requirements are posted on BCFSA's website:

Filing requirements for extraprovincial property and casualty insurance corporations

Filing requirements for extraprovincial life insurance corporations

Filing requirements for extraprovincial fraternal benefit societies

Filing requirements for extraprovincial mortgage insurance corporations

Amendments to the filing requirements include:

- aligning certain requirements with those of the Autorité des marchés financiers (AMF) where AMF is the regulator in the extraprovincial insurance corporation's primary jurisdiction
- clarification of the external audit assurance filing requirements for life, property and casualty, and mortgage insurance corporations
- updates for clarity and ease of use
