CONSENT ORDER PROPOSAL BY CHERYL CHIH YU KANG

BACKGROUND AND FACTS

This Consent Order Proposal (the "Proposal") is made by Ms. Cheryl Chih Yu Kang ("Ms. Kang") to the Consent Order Review Committee ("CORC") of the Real Estate Council of British Columbia (the "Council") pursuant to section 41 of the Real Estate Service Act ("RESA").

For the purposes of the Proposal, Ms. Kang and the Council have agreed upon the following facts:

1. Ms. Kang has been licensed as a representative for trading services since 2006.
2. Ms. Kang was at all relevant times licensed as a trading representative with Sutton Group - West Coast Realty (the "Brokerage").
3. At all material times Ms. Kang was not licensed to conduct rental property management services.
4. On or about March 25, 2010, YFT (the "Landlord") purchased property located at XXXX Millstream Road, West Vancouver, B.C. (the "Property").
5. The Landlord is a personal friend of Ms. Kang and does not reside in Canada. Ms. Kang and another friend, CF ("Ms. F"), assisted the Landlord with the management and rental of the Property.
6. The Landlord paid Ms. Kang and Ms. F some monies to assist her with the management and rental of the Property.
7. On June 9, 2014, Ms. Kang sent an email to DA (the "Complainant") providing her with a signed copy of the Tenancy Agreement for rental of the Property, and inquiring when was as a convenient time for "us to do the walk through inspection report on your move in day." Ms. Kang included the Brokerage information on the signature line of the email.

8. The Complainant responded that “we could do the inspection on Wednesday June any time or Saturday June 14 about 7:00 p.m.”
9. On June 14, 2014, a Condition Inspection Report (the “Inspection Report”) was completed at the Property with Ms. Kang and the Complainant both present. Ms. Kang is listed as the Tenant’s Agent on the Inspection Report and the Brokerage’s address was provided as the Landlord’s Address for Service.
10. The same day (June 14, 2014), a hand written furniture inventory list was prepared by Ms. Kang and signed by the Complainant.
11. On June 24, 2014, Ms. Kang sent an email to the Complainant, providing a copy of the Tenancy Agreement and the Inspection Report. Ms. Kang included the Brokerage contact information on the signature line of her email.
12. The Complainant entered into a one year lease for the Property in or around June 2014.
13. On August 19, 2014, Ms. Kang re-sent the Tenancy Agreement and Inspection Report to the Complainant. Ms. Kang included the Brokerage’s contact information on the signature line of her email.
14. On April 16, 2015, Ms. F sent an email to the Complainant advising that the Tenancy Agreement for the Property was extended “for another year starting June 2015 to 15 May 2016” with a rental increase of $80 with a total monthly rent of $3,660.00. The email was copied to Ms. Kang and signed “C and CK” and included the Brokerage’s contact information on the signature line of the email.
15. On June 15, 2016, the Complainant entered into a Tenancy Agreement with the Landlord effective June 15, 2016 to June 14, 2017. Rent was payable in the amount of $3766 with a security deposit of $1790 and furniture deposit of $2000. The Landlord’s address for service is listed as the Brokerage’s address and the Landlord’s “other phone number” is listed as Ms. Kang’s cell number (XXX-XXX-XXXX).
16. The Complainant provided Ms. Kang with post-dated cheques for the period of June 1, 2016 to December 1, 2016, made payable to the Landlord.

Tree Issues:

17. On October 23, 2016, the Complainant sent an email to Ms. Kang asking her to follow up regarding safety concerns she had expressed to Ms. Kang in relation to trees surrounding the Property.
18. On October 24, 2016, the Complainant sent another email to Ms. Kang advising her that she should verify a tree was located on City land and if not, Ms. Kang should speak with the neighbor and then the City, requesting that the tree be removed due to hazardous and safety concerns.
19. On October 24, 2016, Ms. Kang responded by email:

“It is very obvious that the tree is not on city’s property and you can see the tree is over on the neighbor side. Again, this is out of the landlord’s control and the neighbour next door has no obligation to cut the tree. If you really have the safety concern then you may seek for other houses with not many trees around and I will be willing to negotiating (sic) to terminate the current lease for you”.

20. On October 26, 2016, the Complainant sent an email to Ms. Kang in regards to safety concerns with the tree as well as other concerns with the safety of a sink garburator in the Property. In her email, the Complainant stated:

“I am very surprised by your lack of professionalism and the way you handle customer issues ...it appears to me that you strongly prefer for us to evacuate the rental property before the contract expires as you have suggested in your text message...I would reserve the right to contact the Real Estate Board of Greater Vancouver, and Real Estate Council of BC, advising them about your misconduct in dealing with the above issues as a realtor who rented me the property”.

21. On the same date Ms. Kang responded by email:

“Pls understand that I have to report all the issues to the landlord and need to get the landlord’s approval to go ahead for the fixing. We have scheduled the immediate fixing for the two front entrance lights on October 25, 2016 and have the contractor to inspect the kitchen sink garburator as per your request. I have already passed all the contractor’s comment and quotation to the landlord and waiting for her instruction. Once she told (sic) me to go ahead then we will schedule the earliest appointment for you.”

22. On October 28, 2016, the Complainant sent a further email to Ms. Kang in regards to the tree safety and asked for the name of her managing broker for the rental division.

Toilet Issues

23. On November 14, 2016, the Complainant sent an email to Ms. Kang raising concerns about the replacement of a toilet seat at the Property and again asked for Ms. Kang’s managing broker’s contact information. The Complainant stated that she would be reporting Ms. Kang’s conduct to the Real Estate Council of B.C.
24. On November 19, 2016, the Complainant sent an email to Ms. Kang about a toilet seat problem and asked for her to arrange for a plumber to stop by to repair it.
25. On November 21, 2016, the Complainant sent an email to Ms. Kang again following up on the repair to the toilet and again asking her to arrange to send a plumber.
26. On November 25, 2016, the Complainant sent another email to Ms. Kang in regards to the toilet. She wrote: “you have been introduced to us as the rental agent and you do have responsibility to take care of these issues”.
27. On December 4, 2016, the Complainant sent a further email to Ms. Kang in regards to the toilet and stated as follows:

“Please provide us with the landlord’s information as we would like to send her an email out of courtesy before we take this to the next level. At the end as a tenant we do have the right to have the landlord’s contact information.”

28. On January 1, 2017, Mr. EC (“Mr. C”) of Noble & Associates, a licensed property management firm, commenced providing rental property management for the Property, after being introduced to the Landlord through Ms. Kang.
29. Ms. Kang provided Mr. C with copies of the Tenancy Agreement, the Inspection Report, the furniture inventory list and the Complainant’s post-dated rent cheques.
30. On June 27, 2017, Ms. Kang provided a statement to Council’s investigators denying that she provided real estate services to the Landlord or that she was in charge of rent collection or any monetary transaction. Ms. Kang claimed that she assisted the Landlord who was a friend of hers who lives overseas and who was hoping to have trustworthy people looking after the rental of the Property.
31. A Notice of Discipline Hearing was issued on June 28, 2019 and served on Ms. Kang.
32. Ms. Kang has no prior discipline history with Council.
